

3 Days Danakil trip

Day 1: Addis Ababa to Semera – Drive to Afdera (Danakil)

Take a morning flight from Addis Ababa to Semera, the capital of the Afar region. Upon arrival, meet your local guide and drive toward Lake Afdera, located in the heart of the Danakil Depression. Along the way, enjoy the dramatic desert scenery and meet members of the Afar community, known for their resilience in this harsh landscape. Relax by the salt lake in the evening and witness a beautiful desert sunset.

Overnight: Camping at Afdera

Day 2: Explore Dallol & Salt Mines

Early morning departure to explore Dallol, one of the lowest and hottest places on Earth. Discover the otherworldly landscapes filled with colorful sulfur springs, salt formations, and steaming fumaroles. Visit the Afar salt miners at Lake Asale and witness traditional salt cutting and camel caravans crossing the shimmering salt plains. In the afternoon, return to camp for dinner and rest.

Overnight: Camping near Lake Asale or Afdera

Day 3: Erta Ale Volcano – Return to Semera then fly back to Addis Ababa

After an early breakfast, drive toward Erta Ale Volcano, famous for its active lava lake. Depending on timing and accessibility, hike to the crater to see the glowing lava (if activity permits). Later, drive back to Semera for your return flight to Addis Ababa, concluding your unforgettable Danakil adventure.

End of Tour.
